

STATE OF MICHIGAN
COURT OF APPEALS

---

In the Matter of JESSE and LACEY SHAW, Minors

---

JAMES PFAFF and LILLIAN PFAFF,

Petitioner-Appellants,

v

FAIMLY INDEPENDENCE AGENCY,

Respondent-Appellee.

---

UNPUBLISHED

February 2, 1999

Nos. 204870; 206056

Washtenaw Court

LC Nos. 96-007430-AD;
96-007841-AD

AFTER REMAND

Before: Hood, P.J., and Markman and Talbot, JJ.

MEMORANDUM.

We remanded this matter to the trial court (Nos. 204870; 206056, rel'd June 12, 1998) "only for a limited evidentiary hearing on the investigation and resulting report, including allowing petitioners to cross-examine the report's author". We specifically indicated that it was unnecessary to hold any new hearing regarding petitioners' bid for adoption.

The trial court conducted the hearing as ordered, and concluded that petitioners' petition should be denied. We find no error in the trial court's conclusions, and affirm.

Affirmed.

/s/ Harold Hood

/s/ Stephen J. Markman

/s/ Michael J. Talbot